(VEN) - SPS Vietnam Can Tho Branch recently moved to new office. The new office is strategically located in the Youth Employment Center of the Ninh Kiều District, Can Tho.

Around 80 people came to share in the festivities with SPS Vietnam, including Othmar Hardegger, General Consul of Switzerland, a delegation of SPS United States, Members of People's Committee of Can Tho, including Vice Chairman, Mr. Trương Quang Hoài Nam, Vietnam Software Association with its Member of Executive Committee Mr. Nguyễn Hoàng Việt, and other guests.

Anatolijus Fouracre, the CEO of SPS Vietnam, greeted the participants and shared the significant progress achieved during the last 5 years, the new opportunities for the employees and business location. "I would like to welcome our Can Tho employees to their new home, where we can be energized, motivated and inspired to continue providing outstanding customer service to our clients and grow the Vietnam reputation as a choice country for outsourced service locations with SPS", he said.

Ms. Lan Bui, Branch Manager, Can Tho Office, expressed a very optimistic future regarding the new branch and the company as a whole.

Othmar Hardegger, Consul General of Switzerland in HCMC, spoke of the important role of Swiss Investors in Vietnam. "Swiss companies have invested around 2 billion USD, making Switzerland the 4th biggest European investor in Vietnam today", he said. Mr. Hardegger emphasized, "The commitment of companies like SPS to develop business of the highest standard will inspire many other companies in Vietnam".
